Instructions

I will arrive half an hour before the puja - please have all the puja items ready as per the list - all fruit to be washed.

The ceremony will begin at exactly the appointed time whether the guests have arrived or not.

The family should take a bath before the ceremony and wear clean clothes. Loose fitting white clothes for men are preferable (kurta pyjama or dhoti and anga vastra) and coloured for ladies. Jeans are not suitable.

All preparation should be completed before the ceremony starts as all fiddling and ferreting in the kitchen during the ceremony is discouraged. Explanations will be given in English before and during the ceremony, all chatting and gossiping is to be avoided so that those who are serious can concentrate fully on the Puja.

Until now we have avoided setting fees for Pujas, since it is our sacred duty and not our business, but due to the fact that some yajamanas have been unfair in their charity, indifferent to the value of our time and unmindful of the cost of living to which we too are subjected, we are now compelled to set a minimum dakshina of $250 per ceremony.
